

E. A. THOMPSON
OF THE
ROGERS & THOMPSON
DEPARTMENT STORE
Is buying goods in St. Louis.
Look for this space.

Bart Rosell spent Tuesday in Palmyra with his son, Dr. T. A. Rosell.

To beautify your a home is to make a happy home. Get your Paint from W. B. Hays.

Tip McClintic returned yesterday morning from Hot Springs. He looked as fine as silk and said he felt that way.

Gee but it is hot, and the way to get cool is to buy your ice at McClintic and Donley's store. Leave your order and get it there.

Mrs. E. Gillispie and daughter, Mrs. James Foreman of Palmyra, arrived Tuesday to visit their kinspeople Mesdames M. B. Carson and B. G. Moss.

Joe C. Gray wants you to leave service fees due him at the Farmers and Merchants Bank. 6-15

Misses Molhe and Elizabeth Geotze were with Hannibal friends yesterday.

Miss Edith Evans is visiting relatives in Hannibal.

You can get good ice at McClintic & Donley's store.

Miss Pearl Jones, of St. Louis, is spending the week with relatives in this city.

Spreading Out, W. B. Hays now carries a line of the Heath and Milligan Paints.

WANTED—Money at 6 per cent, good real estate security. Private loan, no commission, no agents. Address A care of the DEMOCRAT.

Dr. Vandiver of Hannibal, was a business visitor in the city Monday.

The Heath and Milligan Paints are the best.—W. B. Hays.

Mrs. Emma Maddox, of Columbia is visiting her kinspeople, J. J. Brown and family.

Liquid Veneer cleans and polishes furniture.—Wood Bros.

Liquid Veneer—Wood Bros.

Mrs. Elizabeth Meyers, of Hunnewell, spent Tuesday in the city with relatives.

We recommend Chinamel for all interior work where the best possible finish and long wear is desired.—Wood Bros.

Burglars.
Carl Dunn and Frank Pedlerford were arrested in Quincy Tuesday by detectives Koch and Bumsler and turned over to Marshal J. W. Stephens and brought to this city.

Yesterday they were bound over to appear before the August term of court.

R. Manning Walker identified 39 rings and three revolvers and numerous knives found in their possession, as goods taken from his store last Sunday a week.

Babies.

The Stork visited Frank Hagan and left him a lovely little girl, but grandpa Vic said: I won't claim her, grandpa Mudd can have her.

And the bird took its flight to Walter Hagan's and left a pretty girl there and grandpa Vic thought three girls were the limit.

And while that is going on, Lucine Uterback is smiling over the arrival of a bouncing boy.

A party of automobilists returning from Palmyra to Macon passed through Monroe Monday and when near Monroe City had a bad tire and after making repairs resumed their journey to their home, Macon. They were all prominent citizens of that place Mrs. F. W. Bless being one the party.

The Fraternal Union of America will meet Tuesday evening June 20th with Mrs. Hallock. All members invited to be present.

Ask for sample can of Chinamel.—Wood Bros.

Mrs. Baxter Vaughn, of Paris, spent the first of the week in the city with her friend, Mrs. Jasper Henderson.

J. H. Woodward, of Hannibal was circulating among old friends yesterday.

Chinamel comes in all natural wood colors in 1 pt, 1 qt, and gal. cans.—Wood Bros.

Solomon Bono, of Cooperville when in town Tuesday, was taken quite ill and had to be removed to his friend's, Jess Humphrey's.

Master John Sherlock, of Winchester, Ill., is spending his vacation at Indian Creek with his friend, James Cusack.

Do you want to improve your property? Use The Sun Proof Paint.
W. B. SPALDING.

To our neighbors and friends who were so kind to us in our recent bereavement, we desire to extend our heartfelt thanks.
A. J. GARNER AND FAMILY.

We heard a gentlemen remark the other day that when shirts are done at home they never look like anything and he told the truth. We charge only 75 cents for negligee shirts.
MONROE STEAM LAUNDRY.

"Red Devil"
An auto party composed of Messrs Hutchison of Centralia, McBride of Paris and Howard of Hannibal, formed as dusty a throng as one would care to see, when they passed through this city yesterday in a handsome "red devil."

Hawkins-Wood.
A surprise party was in store yesterday for the many friends of Roy Wood and Miss Margaret Hawkins, one of the sweetest girls ever raised in this city.

They accompanied by her father, Oscar Hawkins and sister, Mrs. Elmo Jackson went to Palmyra on the Dude and were married by Rev. J. S. Dingle.

May their life always be as warm and glorious as their wedding morning.

Old Fashioned.
The old fashioned article called gratitude is still on earth in spite of what they say. For Mrs. W. F. Westhoff phones us to thank the department and citizens who assisted in the extinguishing of the fire on her premises Monday afternoon.

Dan K. Yowell, the hustler, came down from Galesburg, Ill. and spent Monday and Tuesday looking at God's country.

Yancy Sullivan spent Monday and Tuesday in the city bidding the boys a fearful farewell.

Gen City Business College,
Quincy, Illinois.

Write today for our beautiful 64-page Illustrated Catalogue FREE. It contains school-room views, groups of students, portraits of students in positions, testimonials, specimens of penmanship, graduating class, and list of 1470 students in attendance.

This elegant Catalogue also contains rates of tuition, cost of books, board, etc., with much valuable information for any young person desirous of preparing for a situation as stenographer or bookkeeper.
Address
D. L. MUSSELMAN, Pres't.
83. Quincy, Illinois.

Out on Bail.
Telephone advices from Paris this afternoon give the information that George Brown, who shot Bob Horn, has been released on $1,000 bond. Horn is getting along nicely this afternoon and will recover from his wounds. Three shots were fired the first going wild, the second striking Horn in the leg near the hip and the third bullet hitting one of his ribs and making a slight flesh wound.—Monterly Monitor.

Rosser.
Oval Rosser 21 years of age died at his fathers home southeast of the city Tuesday afternoon, of dropsy of the heart.

Funeral services took place at Center yesterday at 4 p. m.
Mr. Rosser was a popular young man and his sudden death will be regreted by many.

List of Letters.
Remaining unclaimed in post-office, Monroe City, Mo., on June 13, 1905.

Brand, Rev. E. P.
Carrigen, J. R. (2)
Dyer, Mrs. G.
Greeves, Cecil
Mueller, Peter
Oppy, Miss Opal
Riddle, Mrs. E. H.

To obtain any of these letters persons must advertise.—
J. P. PATTON,
Postmaster.

Carnival
Boly Grimes McClintic, Alex Melson and wife, Misses Anna Jordan, Susie McClintic, and Messrs M. Durham, G. R. Wilson and Charles Griggs took in the Carnival at Quincy, Tuesday.

Mrs. J. M. Nickell, of Hannibal is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Goddard.

Did you ever feel that delightful sensation consequent on having done right for right's sake? You never? Would you like to try it once? Then line up with the home people by putting in a Home People's Telephone.

We Are Not Fresh!

But our Stock of Fancy and Staple Groceries are

AND

There is enough Young America in us to desire a part of your trade and to ask for it. Our aim will be to please you and to make it to your interests to deal with us. -- --

L. C. & H. Cunningham

Successors to E. L. Anderson